

'Community is the Answer' conference: sponsored places

The International Association for Community Development is holding its world conference "Community is the Answer" in Glasgow on 9-11 June this year.

'Community is the answer' is a collaboration organised by IACD and the Community Learning and Development Standards Council for Scotland, with the support of the Scottish Government and key partners, including SCDN.

More information can be found at:

<http://www.communityistheanswer.org/>

Education Scotland is sponsoring 80 reduced rate places at £35 per day as opposed to £99 - £125. This is to encourage people who are unwaged or low-income volunteers to attend. Please see below information for more details:

"If you live in Scotland and would not otherwise be in a position to meet the costs of your participation in the world conference "Community is the Answer" in Glasgow, you are invited to apply for a sponsored £35 day delegate place. To apply please provide a brief statement covering the following:

Your current role (especially, for example, as an unwaged or low-income volunteer)

The name of any organisation that you are attached to

The reason that you are requesting a sponsored place (including what benefit you hope to get for yourself and your community)

The day on which you would like to attend (9 June: Health; 10 June: Wealth; 11 June: Power)

Priority will be given to allowing as many people as possible to benefit for one day each. But if any places remain, applications for a second day may be considered - if interested please also indicate a second choice of day.

Please return your statements to <mailto:cdas@pdtaylor.com> or Community Development Alliance Scotland, 56 Turnberry Road, Glasgow G11 5AP. We will let you know as soon as possible whether you have been allocated a place or not and what to do next. Sponsored places will be allocated until all available have been filled."
